

School-Student-Parent Compact (Title 1 Section 1118d)

In accordance with the policies and procedures set forth in Title 1, Sullivant Avenue Community School will jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and the parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during the school year _____2010/2011_____.

The Compact

Responsibility of the School

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards.
2. Hold parent-teacher conferences during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement.
3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their child's progress.
4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff.
5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class and to observe classroom activities.

Responsibility of the Parent

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

Monitoring their attendance

- Monitoring the completion of their homework
- Making sure they are getting enough rest at night
- Monitoring their television viewing
- Volunteering in their child's classroom
- Encouraging their child and helping their child to understand the importance of an education

- Participating in decisions related to the education of their child and positive use of extra-curricular time
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school and responding, as appropriate.

Responsibility of the Student

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

be an active participant in the learning process

- be obedient to the laws and rules of society and the school
- be responsible for the exercise of free speech and expression at school
- avoid illegal and dangerous items at all times
- follow all rules outlined in the parent/student handbook
- cooperate with parents in their efforts to ensure regular daily attendance
- respect the educational process
- take all grade cards and other important information home
- students will complete all academic assignments

Mutual Cooperation of the School and the Parent

The school and the parents both want all children to succeed academically and be well-adjusted socially. To end this, they will mutually strive to maintain an open line of communication to address and resolve concerns related to the child. The school will also make every effort to contact parents on a regular basis to report on the child's progress. This will include regular phone calls or notes to the parents, regularly scheduled parent-teacher conferences, and six week progress reports. If the need arises, the school and the parents will schedule additional meetings at times convenient for both to discuss student progress. The school encourages parents to volunteer for school activities and welcomes parents to observe all classroom activities at any time.
